Purpose: The purpose of Cru is to provide all UF students with the opportunity to have a community of incredible people and learn more about the Christian faith. Cru is open to any student at the University of Florida that wants to participate. Cru also seeks to meet the needs of college students and the community around us through service projects and events.

Activities: Cru holds weekly meetings every Thursday night that provide music and college-centered teachings. These meetings average 700 students throughout the year, and max out at 1100+ during the first two meetings. During the week, there over 45 small-groups made up of 15 or less students that meet and go through college together. Cru provides three retreats a year: Fall Getaway, Men’s Retreat, and Women’s Retreat. There are also other events throughout the year including: 9 welcome week events, football tailgates, Barn Dance, Winter Party, Women’s Night Out, Student Leadership Training Programs, Cru Formal, and the End-of-the-Year BBQ.

Proviso: This allocation will exhaust past the end of the fiscal year on October 1, 2015.
