Purpose: Gators Humans vs. Zombies (GHvZ) promotes safe social and recreational activities for UF students around campus. They bring back a memorable childhood experience of tag, and playing outside with their friends. They use this organization as a way to connect all kinds of students. Team building and cooperation is naturally integrated into the game, which allows a unique community to be formed by people of all different majors and ages based on their participation in the sport of Humans vs. Zombies.

Activities  Their main method of having a stress-relieving recreational activity is by creating a thoroughly planned and immersive experience for their players, which includes creating a full-blown story centering on zombies, as well as planning multiple “missions” per day with activities and objectives for players to complete. Planning the game not only takes a lot of time, but it requires the creation and purchase of props, materials for missions, fliers and banners for advertising, and also providing food for the main events. These funds will allow this organization to continue creating the best games they can. They hold weeklong games each semester, as well as several mini missions throughout the year. These events allow students to get together, get outside, explore the campus, and have fun.

WHEREAS, the United States of America is a secular nation, and is thereby prohibited from promoting or inhibiting the practice of any particular religion; and,

WHEREAS, the Establishment and Free Exercise Clauses of the First Amendment to the United States Constitution protect the right of citizens to worship or not worship as they please; and,

WHEREAS, the Florida Board of Governors Regulation 6.0115 on Religious Observances, authorized by the Constitution of the State of Florida, requires all public universities to maintain a regulation which 'reasonably accommodates the religious observance, practice, and belief of individual students'; and,

WHEREAS, the same regulation requires all public universities to maintain policies which guarantee 'students shall not be penalized due to absence from class because of a religious observance' and to make these policies known 'to faculty and students annually' in institution handbooks like the University of Florida Undergraduate Catalog and Faculty Handbook; and,

WHEREAS, University of Florida Provost Joseph Glover restated in an October 2015 memo emailed to UF faculty that students cannot be penalized for absences due to religious observances; and,

WHEREAS, policies have recently been advocated for that encourage the University Administration to pass new restrictions on exams scheduled during the holidays of an incomplete list of religions, thereby explicitly favoring those religions listed; then,

THEREFORE, LET IT BE RESOLVED, that the University of Florida Student Senate reaffirms its goal to defend religious freedom at the University of Florida so that all students may freely worship or choose to abstain from worship; and,

THEREFORE, LET IT BE FURTHER RESOLVED, that the University of Florida Student Senate supports the University Administration's current policy that requires faculty to excuse individual students; and,
THEREFORE, LET IT BE FINALLY RESOLVED, that the University of Florida Student Senate encourages University of Florida administrators to review faculty awareness of the multitude of holidays students observe and expand awareness of University Non-Discrimination policies with regards to religious observances.

Purpose: Gators Humans vs. Zombies (GHvZ) promotes safe social and recreational activities for UF students around campus. They bring back a memorable childhood experience of tag, and playing outside with their friends. They use this organization as a way to connect all kinds of students. Team building and cooperation is naturally integrated into the game, which allows a unique community to be formed by people of all different majors and ages based on their participation in in the sport of Humans vs. Zombies.

Activities Their main method of having a stress-relieving recreational activity is by creating a thoroughly planned and immersive experience for their players, which includes creating a full-blown story centering on zombies, as well as planning multiple “missions” per day with activities and objectives for players to complete. Planning the game not only takes a lot of time, but it requires the creation and purchase of props, materials for missions, fliers and banners for advertising, and also providing food for the main events. These funds will allow this organization to continue creating the best games they can. They hold weeklong games each semester, as well as several mini missions throughout the year. These events allow students to get together, get outside, explore the campus, and have fun.

Purpose: The Interfaith Ambassadors serve as student leaders for the multi-faith community, embracing students from all faiths and non-faith backgrounds. They aim to create an inclusive campus climate, while encouraging friendly and evocative dialogue. Their organization rests on three pillars: education, service, and leadership, and they look to serve the greater Gainesville community as well as the University of Florida through meaningful programs and community service work. They are not a missionary organization, but rather an organization with a mission.

Activities Their organization achieves their mission by having monthly discussions open to the UF student body centered on religious topics. They also host events such as SpeedFaithing, Interfaith Thanksgiving, and Battle of the Bands. This is where the student body can learn more about other cultures and faiths.

STUDENT SENATE LAW 2016-117

TITLE: Amendment to the Student Body Constitution Article VIII Section 2 Part 3

AUTHORS: Senate President Jenny Clements

SPONSORS: Senator Preston Jones

WHEREAS, the Supreme Court decision, “Interpretation of The University of Florida Constitution: Section 4 of Article VIII,” ruled the constitutional amendment decided in the Spring 2010 elections that would “amend the proposal initiative process to provide that a petition carrying the signatures of 5% of the student body shall be placed on the ballot” did not reach the mandated voter threshold; and,

WHEREAS, the Student Body Constitution currently states, “Students may propose amendments to the constitution upon a submission of a petition to the student honor court chancellor joined by ten percent of the electorate not later than twenty-eight days before the ratification election;” and,

WHEREAS, the most recently recorded student population from the University of Florida Office of Institutional Planning and Research in fall 2015 was recorded as 52,519 students¹; and,

WHEREAS, five percent of 52,519 students would be 2,626 students and ten percent would be 5,252 students; and,

WHEREAS, lowering the needed percentage would allow students to get involved in Student Government more easily; then,

THEREFORE, LET IT BE RESOLVED, that an amendment shall be placed on the Spring 2017 ballot by the Supervisor of Elections that reads: “Should the Student Body Constitution Article VIII Section 2 be updated to add the following clause allowing students to propose amendments to the constitution: ‘...joined by five percent of the electorate not later than twenty-eight days before the ratification election.’?”

Purpose: The purpose of Grandkids is to bridge the inter-generational gap between the youth and senior generations. Grandkids connect students with patients in need of social support around the community. The goal of the program is to reduce isolation and suicide in senior citizens and improve their physical and mental health by forming meaningful social connections.

Activities: Grandkids will be able to accomplish these goals by networking with places in the community such as Shands Hospital, Assisted Living Facilities and Hospice. They cannot complete their goals without marketing their mission and recruiting students who are passionate about the clinical volunteer experience. By hosting tabling events for their general body meetings, they are able to promote their organization in a fun way while also highlighting a major health illness that students frequently must learn to effectively handle while in the clinical world, Alzheimer's.
