Purpose: The Bhangra Club at the University of Florida was created to spread the knowledge of Punjabi folk dance, specifically Bhangra and Giddha, throughout Florida, starting with the students and faculty at UF. Since 2003, the Bhangra club has gone to competitions around the country including: North Carolina, Texas, Washington, Philadelphia and Tennessee. Additionally, they perform at numerous events around campus. Through Bhangra, they hope to promote tolerance and diversity within their community and to engage people in the cultures around the world.

Activities Gator Bhangra will create a competitive team to represent UF on a national scale by holding practices three times a week. These practices are open to anyone and will be advertised to encourage everyone to join the club. Gator Bhangra aims to cosponsor dance workshops and other events with multicultural organizations like the Indian Student Association, AASU, and VISA. Gator Bhangra will also spread awareness of their organization and culture by performing around campus at events like ISA Diwali Show, Praharsha, Soulfest, VISA Talent Show, and more.

Proviso: This allocation will exhaust at the end of the fiscal year on June 30, 2016
