STUDENT SENATE BILL 2017-1060

TITLE: Spring 2019 Reapportionment

AUTHORS: Judiciary Chairwoman Emily Dempsey

SPONSORS: Judiciary Committee

322.4 The fifty (50) Spring Student Senators will be elected by the classification formed into voting districts, with each college and independent school guaranteed at least one Student Senator, remaining seats will be allocated by relative student population of the college. The following designates the voting districts and the number of seats each college will have:

Fisher School of Accounting.................................................. 1
Architecture........................................................................... 1
Agriculture Agricultural and Life Sciences.......................... 3
M.E. Rinker School of Building Construction.................... 1
Heavener School of Business Administration...................... 3
Dentistry............................................................................ 1
Education .......................................................................... 1
Herbert Wertheim College of Engineering ....................... 4
Fine Arts........................................................................... 1
Graduate Students............................................................. 10 11
Health and Human Performance...................................... 1
Public Health and Health Professions.............................. 1
Journalism and Communications...................................... 2 1
Levin College of Law.......................................................... 1
Liberal Arts and Sciences.................................................... 6 7
Medicine.......................................................................... 1
Nursing............................................................................ 1
Pharmacy.......................................................................... 1
Undergraduate Freshman Class....................................... 3 2
Undergraduate Sophomore Class..................................... 6
Veterinary Medicine........................................................... 1