Purpose: LADIES (leadership, advancement, development, involvement, encouragement, service), is an organization that can uplift any student. This organization tries its best to help students reach their fullest potential. This organization reaches out to UF students to help them build character, confidence, and helps them to sustain under stressful situations. They will learn to exude confidence while doing so.

Activities: LADIES accomplishes this through workshops and general body meetings that are open to all UF students. The confidence that these students gain from this organization will derive from being well-rounded individuals. These traits will follow them through college and wherever else they go in the future.
Proviso: This allocation will exhaust at the end of the fiscal year on June 30, 2018
