Enacted per Article III, Section 8(b) of the SG Constitution 8/21/19
(m) enact all laws necessary and proper for the general well being of the Student Body; and
(n) exercise any other power or duty provided for in the constitution or laws of the Student Body.

Section 7. Prohibitions.—The Student Senate shall not:
(a) enact any law that abridges its powers delegated by the constitution;
(b) appropriate funds for a period of more than one year;
(c) increase or decrease a Student Government official’s salary, except as specifically detailed in section 9 of this article;
(d) infringe the secrecy of the ballot in any Student Body election;
(e) deny speaking privileges in the Student Senate to the student body president, student body vice president, student body treasurer, cabinet directors, agency heads, chief justice or any justice of the supreme court, executive director of the honor code administration, or any university administrative officer or college dean;
(f) meet in a closed session;
(g) conduct any vote by secret ballot;
(h) change the dates of Student Body elections in the nine weeks before the scheduled election;
(i) change the election laws during the five weeks before the scheduled election to be effective for that election; or
(j) enact any law embracing more than one subject and matter properly connected to that subject.

Section 8. Procedures.—
(a) No bill shall become law unless a student senator introduces the bill, the bill is read, and passes by majority vote during two meetings of the Student Senate.

(b) No bill shall become law without the signature of the student body president, except when the student body president has not vetoed the bill within ten days after presentment, in which case the bill shall become law.

(c) The student body president may veto a proposed law. The student body president must notify the senate president in writing detailing the reasons for the veto.

(d) The university president or the university president’s designee may veto a proposed law. The student body president must notify the senate president in writing no later than ten days after receiving the veto stating the reasons for the university president’s veto.

(e) The Treasurer of the Student Body shall have veto equal with that of the President of the Student Body in all matters concerning Budget approval and revisions to said budget. The Treasurer of the Student Body shall have exclusive veto in matters concerning appropriations from Special Request Funds.
Hi James,

I am confirming that Senate Laws 2019-106, 2019-107, 2019-108, 2019-109, and 2019-110 were given to Student Body President Murphy on August 7th, 2019, following the meeting in which they were passed on August 6th. They were given well within 10 days of their approval by the Senate.

Regards,
